Barcelona terrorist attack in Ecuadorian newspaper

Introduction

What is terrorism?

- Terrorism is the use of violence or threat of violence especially against civilians in the pursuit of political aims, religious, or ideological change.

Cross-border terrorism

- It's a type of terrorism has an impact on the other countries in the world too.

El Correo

- It was not brought out on the front page of the newspaper
- They thought more important news were: highway construction and Lenin Moreno (president of Ecuador) visit in Santa Rosa (city in Ecuador)

- The article covered only 20 % of the whole page.
- It included one black and white photo. What was from the France news agency “AFP” (Agence France-Presse)
- And also the article is based on the information from the AFP.
- The article was written in the internacionales news part.

- This is quite short article so there isn't a lot of information and because of this its a little bit confusing article.
- There are only few facts about the attack.
- It might seem that they wrote it only because they had to do it.

What influence it made on...

- You? It made us skeptical about travelling to Spain, especially to Barcelona.
- On the others? People are afraid to take part in massive events.

- Society? Less tourists want to travel to countries where have happened this kind of attack.
- Economy? Terror acts often destroy different machines and industries, it also slows down the trading and marketing over the country borders. Countries start to get less money from tourism.

- Increased Nationalism and Foreign Skepticism
- War Is the Health of the State
- Insurance, Trade, Tourism and FDI
- Increased Uncertainty in the Markets
- Direct Economic Destruction

- Politics?

Governments struggle to maintain the control over the terror attacks. And they are thinking about closing the borders and making the check on the borders even stronger.
